EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

ACADEMIC SENATE

Meeting No. 14
Stevenson 141
8:00 p. m. to 11:30 p. m.

May 1, 1973

Dean Budig discussed the North Central Report with the Executive Committee.

The selection of an ethics committee was discussed. As Chairman of the Senate, Mr. Edwards is automatically the Chairman of the ethics committee. Clarification of the differences between an ethics concern and a grievance was given. A motion to have faculty members of the Executive Committee name the committee was accepted.

The opinion of the Student Attorney was discussed. The opinion will be distributed to the Senate members after the Student Attorney has been given the opportunity to make any revisions desired.

A discussion of what to do with the CCGR Report ensued.

Committee appointments were discussed.

Proposed changes in the SCERB process will be referred to the Rules Committee.

Mr. McConnell discussed the possibility of putting students on higher boards in the state. A resolution regarding this possibility was put on the agenda as an action item.

A resolution on Handicapped Day was put on the agenda as an action item.
